

The logo is wrong. And it should be bigger. (Look at the bottom in the phone)

Replace

Your personal Meal Planner in Your Pocket

by

What's for dinner? Shuffle your favorite recipes, get the week's menu.

--- Small text next/right of the title should read ---

All your favorite recipes, in one fun app! Handwritten, bookmarked or found online — gather them all in the My Meal Mix app. Then let the weekly menu-shuffling fun begin!

--- Text under the video ---

A Fun And Easy Way To Plan Your Meals

--- line under ---

Easily Add & Find Your Favorite Recipes. Shuffle. Approve. Print!

--- four points/steps ---- from left top, bottom, right top, bottom

Add Your Meals

Easily add your recipes from handwritten notes, cookbooks or website links. Select the appropriate protein, put notes or a http: link. You also get to decide which recipe shows up on a weekday, weekends or any day.

Shuffle A Week's Menu

Press shuffle and get a Sunday to Saturday list of suggested meals. Don't like it? Shuffle again. Depending on how many recipes you have entered, you can get an almost infinite quantities of combinations.

Print The Week's Menu

Like what you see for the week? Print it! Landscape. And keep it on the app to go back and access your notes or links to prepare your meals.

Edit/Search Your Meals

Looking for a specific recipe? Go to your list and search by proteins or keywords. Print the results as needed.

Is the app really free?

Yes! But to get rid of the ads and supporting an app you like, please consider upgrading to the premium version. For only $10/year, less than $1 a month!

Need to know change to Planning Dinner Made Fun

no small text under

(change the picture to a girl in a kitchen with a phone... not paper pad)

FAQ

Change the last bottom one (how often do you add recipe) to How does the app pick meals? And answer with a AI 100 words or less of the rules you have put in.